

One Maryland One Book

WHAT: Statewide Community Reading Event

WHO: Teens and Adults

WHEN: Books available now, Events in September

WHERE: Wicomico Public Library

Reading is often a solitary pursuit. But imagine if all five million Marylanders read the same great book at the same time. What kind of conversations could you have and with whom could you connect or reconnect in your community?

The Maryland Center for the Book, a program of the Maryland Humanities Council, and Wicomico Public Library invite you to be a part of Maryland's first-ever statewide community reading program—One Maryland One Book. Pick up a FREE copy of this year's selected book, A Hope in the Unseen by Ron Suskind to read this summer, at any location of Wicomico Public Library and look for related programs in September.

In addition, Eastern Shore Regional Library is sponsoring a Teen Writing Contest and a Teen YouTube Contest in conjunction with the community reading program. The contests are open to students enrolled in grades 6 – 12, or young adults between the ages of 11 and 18. Cash prizes up to $500 will be awarded. For full contest details visit www.wicomicolibrary.org and click on "Teen Writing & YouTube Contests" in the News & Events box.

For more information on this event or other library services, visit us on the web at www.wicomicolibrary.org or call 410-749-3612. Programs are free and open to the public.
