

Types of Dementia: It's not always Alzheimer's

WHAT: Alzheimer's Disease & Dementia

WHO: Alzheimer's Association

WHEN: Monday, November 24, 7 p.m.

WHERE: Wicomico Public Library, Room 1

November is National Alzheimer's Awareness Month and the Alzheimer's Association will be offering an educational program to help people learn more, and cope better with the disease. On Monday, November 24th, the Alzheimer's Association, in conjunction with the Wicomico Public Library's 50+ Forum series, will be offering a free educational workshop, "Types of Dementia: It's not always Alzheimer's."

50+ Forums are part of 50+ @ the Library, programs which focus on the seven dimensions of wellness: emotional, vocational, physical, spiritual, social, intellectual, and creative expression.

For more information on this event contact Amy Schine, Education Consultant at 410-749-4940. For information on other library services, visit us on the web at www.wicomicolibrary.org or call 410-749-3612. Events and classes are free and open to the public.
